To Whom It May Concern:

Sierra was a design intern with our firm during the months of January-May 2019. After working with Sierra for twelve weeks, I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for her.

Sierra showed exemplary levels of motivation, enthusiasm, and professionalism for the duration of her internship. She was confident in her abilities and was willing to perform any task, big or small, that was handed to her. She completed everything she was given in a timely manner and with a positive attitude. Sierra was always looking to further her understanding of the design process, including product knowledge, back of house procedures, and purchasing.

Sierra has been a great addition to our team and we have thoroughly enjoyed our time with her. I believe she has outstanding potential and would be a great asset to any company; I cannot recommend her enough.

Thank you,
